OSU-MICHIGAN GAME TO BE SHOWN ON BIG SCREEN AT RENAISSANCE

MANSFIELD, OHIO. The Renaissance Performing Arts Association announces that the Ohio State University vs. Michigan game will be aired in HDTV on the 40-foot video screen with state-of-the-art surround sound in the comfort of the historic Renaissance Theatre on Saturday, November 17th. The doors will open at 11:00AM with kick-off at Noon. Last years event attracted over 600 people instantly becoming the biggest beat Michigan party in north central Ohio. On-air radio personality Tommy Barnes from WMAN-1400 will emcee the event. Domino's Pizza, Eatmor Bundt's "Buckeye Bundts", snacks, beer, wine, and soft drinks will be available. Time Warner Cable is providing great items to give-away during the game. The Ohio State University Mansfield is also providing support, and has donated a ball signed by head coach Jim Tressel as the Grand Prize giveaway. Additionally, the Renaissance is hosting an online only contest in the Discussion Forums on its new website: HYPERLINK "http://www.mansfieldtickets.com" www.mansfieldtickets.com. Contestants can enter their prediction of the first half score of the game to win a pair of tickets to the Dickey Betts concert on March 4th. The Ohio State University vs. Michigan Game at the Renaissance is presented by Renaissance Performing Arts, Time Warner Cable, Main Street Mansfield, and The Ohio State University-Mansfield. There is no admission charge for this event.
